

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 5-A

WASHINGTON TIMES
18 June 1985

18 JUN 1985

Lebanon missing, kidnapped named

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — Following is a list of Americans and other Westerners who disappeared or were kidnapped in Lebanon and were still missing as of yesterday:

1. William Buckley, 56, American, political officer at the U.S. Embassy in Beirut, abducted March 18, 1984, from his car in mainly Moslem west Beirut. A native of Medford, Mass.

2. The Rev. Benjamin Weir, 60, American, Presbyterian minister, kidnapped May 8, 1984, by gunmen near his house in west Beirut. A native of Berkeley, Calif.

3. Peter Kilburn, 60, American, librarian at the American University of Beirut, disappeared Nov. 30, 1984, in west Beirut. A native of the Bay Area in California.

4. The Rev. Martin Lawrence Jenco, 50, American, director of Catholic Relief Services in Lebanon and a member of the Servite order, kidnapped Jan. 8, 1985, by a carload of gunmen in west Beirut. A native of Joliet, Ill.

5. Terry A. Anderson, 37, American, chief Middle East correspondent and Beirut bureau manager for The Associated Press news agency, kidnapped March 16, 1985, by three gunmen in west Beirut. Family resides in Batavia, N.Y.

6. Marcel Fontaine, 45, vice consul at the French Embassy in Beirut, kidnapped March 22, 1985, in west Beirut. From Paris.

7. Marcel Carton, 62, chief of protocol at the French Embassy in Beirut, disappeared March 22, 1985, while on his way to work in west Beirut. From Paris.

8. Alec Collett, 63, British citizen married to an American woman, resident of New York City, a freelance journalist on a three-month assignment as an information officer for the U.N. Relief and Works Agency in Lebanon, kidnapped March 25, 1985, by gunmen in the mainly Shi'ite Moslem southern suburbs of Beirut.

9. Jean-Paul Kaufmann, correspondent for the French weekly L'Evenement du Jeudi, disappeared May 22, 1985, at a roadblock near Beirut airport shortly after his arrival from Paris with a fellow Frenchman, Michel Seurat.

10. Michel Seurat, French, a researcher at the Beirut-based Institute of Middle East Affairs, vanished May 22, 1985, in west Beirut along with French correspondent Kaufmann.

11. David Jacobsen, 54, American, administrator of the American University Hospital in west Beirut, kidnapped by three gunmen as he walked to his office on May 28, 1985. A resident of Huntington Beach, Calif., he had been AUH administrator since November 1984.

12. Thomas Sutherland, 53, Scottish-born American whose family resides in Colorado, dean of the American University of Beirut's agriculture school, seized by gunmen June 9, 1985, on the highway leading into the capital.